SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, you will be on supervised release for a term of :

3 years on each count to run concurrently.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
 - ☐ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
4. ☒ You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
5. ☐ You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (42 U.S.C. § 16901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in the location where you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
6. ☐ You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached page.

DEFENDANT: JESSICA LYNN CLOUGH, aka JESSICA LYNN KC
CASE NUMBER: CR 16-45-M-DWM

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. For further information regarding these conditions, see Overview of Probation and Supervised Release Conditions, available at: www.uscourts.gov.

CASE NUMBER: CR 16-45-M-DWM

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. The defendant shall have no contact with Robert Upton, Corporate Image Outfitters, or Rainy Pass Repair unless authorized in writing by the supervising United States Probation Officer to have such contact, or if Upton, Corporate Image Outfitters, or Rainy Pass Repair makes an effort to contact the defendant, in which case the defendant must inform probation and receive permission before responding.
2. All employment must be approved in advance in writing by the United States Probation Office. The defendant shall consent to third-party disclosure to any employer or potential employer of the facts of her conviction.
3. The defendant shall not serve in a fiduciary capacity in any employment or volunteer position.
4. The defendant will provide the United States Probation Officer with any requested financial information and shall incur no new lines of credit without prior approval of the United States Probation Officer. The defendant must notify the Probation Officer of any material changes in her economic circumstances that might affect her ability to pay restitution, fines or special assessments.
5. The defendant shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds, lottery winnings, judgments, and/or any other anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding court-ordered financial obligation including restitution.
6. While on supervision, the defendant will fulfill all tax obligations in adherence to Internal Revenue Service requirements.
7. The defendant shall participate in and successfully complete a mental health program inclusive of gambling addiction treatment as directed by the United States Probation Office.
8. The defendant shall not engage in any gambling or wagering activity of any kind, whether online, over the telephone, or in person, and shall not enter any casino or other place of business where gambling is the primary service offered.
9. The defendant shall participate in a program for mental health treatment as directed by the United States Probation Officer, until such time as the defendant is released from the program by the probation officer. The defendant is to pay part or all of the cost of this treatment, as directed by the United States Probation Office and depending upon her ability to pay.
10. The defendant shall submit her person, residence, place of employment, vehicles, and papers, to a search, with or without a warrant by any probation officer based on reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. The defendant shall allow seizure of suspected contraband for further examination.
11. The defendant shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol. Excessive use of alcohol is defined by this Court as .06 BAC or above.
12. The defendant shall participate in substance abuse testing, to include not more than 52 breathalyzer tests annually during the period of supervision. The defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of testing as directed by the United States Probation Office and depending upon her ability to pay.
13. The defendant shall not possess, ingest or inhale any toxic substances such as, but not limited to, synthetic marijuana and/or synthetic stimulants that are not manufactured for human consumption, for the purpose of altering her mental or physical state.
14. The defendant shall not purchase, possess, use, distribute or administer marijuana, or obtain or possess a medical marijuana card or prescription.
